

Laura Acuña

Hope. Encouragement. God's Truth.

Laura exudes warmth, fun, and authenticity whether speaking to her Bible study sisters, in front of a large group, or in a one-on-one conversation. She passionately shares the truths the Lord has taught her through His Word and through life lessons learned along the way.

Married to her closest friend and encourager, she and Pat are the proud parents of three adult sons, one sweet daughter-in-love, and are "Nonie and Grandpap" to Evelyn Grace. Laura is a graduate of Liberty University where she earned a degree in Christian Counseling and a minor in Biblical Studies. She's the co-leader of Step Up Coaching for Women in Ministry and Women Who Lead Women, a group of over 50 area women's leaders from many different denominations. Laura is on the leadership team of Sisters In Faith, a ministry to women in the community that began in 2001. She served as a women's ministry leader in various capacities for 21 years and is a Bible study leader at her home church. For more detailed information, go to the Ministries page on her website.

Are you in need of a speaker for your next women's event? Laura prayerfully considers each request and would love to have the opportunity to serve alongside you and your team at your next event!

"I have heard Laura speak several times now. Her sense of humor enabled me to relate to her right from the beginning, but her willingness to be transparent on tough topics really helped me grow in my understanding of myself and The Lord."

From Laura's heart...

My deepest desire is to continue to grow in my relationship with Christ, to become the mature woman He has created me to be and to inspire the same desire in other women. The calling God has placed on my life is to encourage and challenge women to grow up in health and wholeness and to take God at His Word. I want each woman to know she can take off her mask, experience His restoration, and be the beautiful one He created her to be.
